

New employee in our customer support team

Montreal, July 5th, 2021

We would like to welcome Salim Hamidouche, Hotello's new technical support agent!

With a master's degree in computer science, Salim has worked for several companies and apps for hotels' operations management and technical support positions.

With diverse work experiences accumulated over his professional path, we are pleased to have him join our team of experts devoted to hoteliers' success.

Welcome to Hotello Salim!

Catherine Daoust,
Customer Support Director
